PLIDA PLACE

Don't miss out on this opportunity to showcase your unique products at the 24th International Perinatal Bereavement Conference in New Orleans on May 13 - 16, 2026.

This biennial conference brings together leading experts, professionals and parent advocates to engage in educational and networking opportunities for those who support bereaved families affected by pregnancy loss, stillbirth, and newborn death.

Exhibiting in PLIDA Place will allow an unprecedented opportunity to showcase your business and sell merchandise to an expected captive audience of nearly 300 attendees from across the country. This three-day exhibition will run in conjunction with the conference and will be prominently displayed in a highly visible area at the beautiful Marriott Warehouse Arts District.

- o The exhibitor assumes complete responsibility and liability for all injury to any and all persons or property in any way connected with the exhibitor's display or caused to the exhibitor, exhibitor's agents, representatives, or employees. Copyrights and trademarks related to music and other materials regarding materials are the sole financial responsibility of the exhibitor and should meet all state and federal laws.

Reminders

- o Exhibitors shall not attend all or part of conference education sessions for which we offer continuing education credit unless the exhibitor is registered for the conference and is wearing a name badge (preconference, plenaries, concurrents, and evening reception)
- o Exhibitors are responsible for their own food. The exhibitor fee does not include meals. Helping oneself to hors d'oeuvres, break food, or any meals or parts thereof is not permissible if the exhibitor did not pay the full registration fee. Note: The hotel has its own restaurants or you can bring your own food into the hotel, if desired.
- o Under no circumstances should exhibitors bring materials from their exhibit space to another area of the conference (e.g., into an education session). Continuing education providers have strict guidelines on separation of education and advertising or sales. Violations of this rule place CE providers at risk. Conference planners and organizers will be monitoring sessions to assure that this rule is followed.
- o Acceptance of exhibit and sponsorship applications is at the discretion of the conference planning committee. Conference organizers reserve the right to decline any exhibit or sponsorship application.
